

I participate in an anime contest since I want to know the level of my work by comparing to others. I didn't get into the top three but got into a judges' list award. The comment that the judges gave me was that my drawing techniques were great, but the story itself wasn't strong enough.

I...

will never be good enough no matter how hard I try.

believe I can improve my storytelling skills with more practice!

I follow what my parent said: to get into a good university to study engineering. I know I don't like what I am studying, but I am also not bad at it.

This is what I was meant to be.
